

DEATH STRANDING LAUNCH ON PC MOVED TO JULY 2020

The PC version of the award-winning videogame Death Stranding will be launched on 14th July 2020 after the studio Kojima Productions has temporarily closed its offices.

The Group confirms expected lifetime revenues in line with previous expectations.

Milano – 21 April, 2020 – Digital Bros Group (DIB:MI), which is listed on the STAR segment of Borsa Italiana and operates in the videogames market, announces today that the PC version of Death Stranding will be launched worldwide on July 14th, 2020 instead of June 2nd, 2020. This change comes after the impact of precautions related to the Coronavirus, with the studio Kojima Productions temporarily closing its Tokyo based offices and move to remote working after one of the employees was tested positive to COVID-19 on March 30th, 2020. Digital Bros Group has, since then, monitored the situation in cooperation with the studio, has decided today to postpone the launch of Death Stranding to July 14th, 2020 to reflect the situation.

Kojima Production is a creative studio helmed by renowned game creator Hideo Kojima. The studio, established in December 2015, developed the videogame Death Stranding. The console version of the videogame has been released on PlayStation 4 by Sony Interactive Entertainment on November 8th, 2019 and has gone on to win many awards. Digital Bros' subsidiary, 505 Games, has the worldwide publishing rights for the personal computer version of Death Stranding. The Group expects to generate lifetime revenues in excess of Euro 50 million from the personal computer version of the videogame.
